

(Erasmus+, Strategic Partnership for Adult education)

TEd2 PROJECT – ADAPTATION PROCESS QUESTIONNAIRE

Country - MALTA

ORGANISATION	The Geminarie Group
CONTACT DATA	604, St. Joseph High Street, hamrun, Malta Tel: +356 21436384 Mob: +356 79871663 Email: info@geminariigroup.org
TARGET GROUP/ CONTEXT	Asylum Seekers, Refugees and those qualifying for international protection living in the open community; Women over 40 Disadvantaged groups including children and youths
CONTENT/LEARNING OUTCOMES	Animals play a critical role in helping people live healthy lives. In our training we will demonstrate that Animal-assisted therapy, activities and learning can bring about deep and lasting social, emotional, cognitive, physical, spiritual and psychological changes.
DESCRIPTION OF PROCESS	Units: Theoretical in class lessons to deepen the theoretical part; Practical training with the dog to learn the educational and relational model • Simulation of AAI setting • Video modelling to learn the operational techniques/styles within the AAI setting, Duration: 10 Units spread on 30 days. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Introduction to the Human-Animal Bond and its therapeutic applications• History of AAT/AAA and multi- cultural implications• Key concepts in HCAB• Institutional and clinical AAT/AAA• How to become an AAT/AAA practitioner; Career opportunities• How to organize an AAT/AAA program

(Erasmus+, Strategic Partnership for Adult education)

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Selecting animals for AAT/AAA; Protecting the welfare of animals• How to conduct an animal-assisted visit• AAT/AAA with children and youth / disadvantaged groups/ migrants• Future Growth and opportunities of AAT/AAA in Malta
RESOURCES NEEDED
Changes implemented and reasons.
Problems met during the adaptation process	Locally we did not meet any problems. We have established a very good working relationship with one of Malta's specialist in the field and we will be working together during the training/piloting.